

CHATEAU MAUCAILLOU 2021

PRIMEURS

WINE ADVOCATE - Avril 2022 - USA

William KELLEY

Note: 86-87

Along with Poujeaux and Chasse Spleen, this estate is one of the largest and holders In Moulis's best terroirs, and now changes are afoot at this longtime underachiever, which has hired Lynch Bage's former winemaker and is extending elevage from 10 to 16 months. The 2021 Maucaillou is a solid effort, exhibiting notions of sweet berries, forest floor, cigar wrapper and licorice, followed by a medium to full bodied, deep and nicely concentrated palate underpinned by lively acids. Given developments at this address, future vintages may be wines to watch.

Note: 90-91

Medium-bodied with round and juicy tannins. Blackcurrant, bark, and light chocolate character. Solid concentration for the vintage.

VINOUS – Mai 2022 - USA

Neal Martin

Note: 87-89

The 2021 Maucaillou has an airy bouquet with blackberry and wild strawberry scents, touches of peony emerging with time. The palate is medium-bodied with slightly gritty Tannins, but there is balance here, even if it tapers towards the finish. Fine.

Note: 91+

Deep purple colour with violet hue and black core. Powerful and concentrated nose with ripe black stone fruit and dark berries, distinct oak influence, dark chocolate and hints of coffee, vanilla. On the palate firm tannins, rather full-bodied character, elegant rusticity, well structured with very good length.

 Anthocyanes

Yohan Castaing

Note: 90-92

Nez variétal et pas totalement mur. De la tension, une structure moyennement dense et des tannins qui serrent. Un Maucaillou qu'il faudra revoir après les élevages.

Jancis Robinson

JANCIS ROBINSON - Mai 2022 - GB

Jancis Robinson

Note: 16

Very deep purplish crimson. Light nose of mulberries. Sweet and round initially on the palate with good phenolic ripeness. A little drying and hollow on the finish. But generally a pretty good drink for the medium term. Could be GV.

falstaff

FALSTAFF - Mai 2022 - D

Peter Moser

Note: 89

Dark ruby, almost opaque core, purple reflections and subtle brightening on the rim. Inviting aromas of cassis, creamy nougat, ripe plums. Medium-bodied style with hints of toasted nuts and plums and caramel on the finish.
